

Previous slide Next slide RUS acts as a social activist to create opportunities for the under privileged people by providing multi-dimensional support services for their sustainable socio-economic growth and development. We are in a family of more than half a million members who are relentlessly working for sustainable livelihoods development by creating job opportunities for low income segment